By Dori Dixon I have live in Utah my entire life and have hiked and enjoyed this most diverse beautiful State in the nation. I am a retired Utah State Park Ranger and Manager that has lived and worked in eight different park areas through out this State and have hiked on many of the trails highlighted in Julie's book. During my now 15 years of retirement in Torrey, Utah, I have hiked well over 2,000 miles in this world class hiking area called Southern Utah. Not really knowing Julie that well, I was surprised that she was a writer. I purchased the book and found it to be a "must have" for anyone who enjoys the outdoor experience in this incredible State. It is an excellent source of information.

By E. Plummer I was so excited to get this book into my hands. Julie's love of Utah and deep knowledge of the backcountry shines through. If you are looking for a hidden lake, a place to see wildflowers (and when), waterfalls, this is a great resource. My personal favorite is Virgin River Narrows. Highly recommend this book!
