Kathrin Bielfeldt, Raymond Wong : 111 Places in Hong Kong That You Shouldn't Miss (111 Places in That You Must Not Miss) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 111 Places in Hong Kong That You Shouldn't Miss (111 Places in That You Must Not Miss):

Discover the hidden places, stories, and neighborhoods that reveal Hong Kong's true character, history, and flavor; Part of the international 111 Places/111 Shops series with over 150 titles and 1 million copies in print worldwide. From zero to hundred in 175 years, no other metropolis has as compressed and checkered a history as Hong Kong, with its striking and seamless blend of eastern and western cultures. Famous for its cosmopolitan nightlife, cutting-edge fashion, culinary sophistication, and entertainment, Hong Kong also conceals a trove of lesser-known and unpredictable experiences. More than 260 islands and country parks as far as the eye can see - who would expect such breathtaking natural beauty in one of the most densely populated cities on Earth? Step off the beaten path to explore Hong Kong's hidden heart. Discover what compels locals to stand in a line that snakes around the corner every morning at 4:30am, and from which "Great Wall of China" you will find a wonderful view over the South China Sea. Learn what gas lanterns have to do with the bubonic plague, and visit a place where 1,000,000 HK$ for a golf cart seems like a bargain. From secluded beaches to wishing trees, prepare to be surprised, delighted, and amazed.

About the Author Kathrin Bielfeldt is a translator and copywriter. During a backpacking tour through Hong Kong and China 1990, she lost her heart to the country, its people, and their culture. Life took her around the world, but Hong Kong remains, for her, the most beautiful city on Earth. Raymond Wong is a native of Hong Kong. He is a successful author of travel guides, a ghostwriter, and a columnist.
