

(Online library) 25 Walks in Myanmar: Exploring the Historic Landmarks of Myanmar

25 Walks in Myanmar: Exploring the Historic Landmarks of Myanmar

Kenneth Barrett

*DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

#4906299 in Books 2017-02-07 2017-02-07Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 8.00 x .0 x 5.13l, .0 #File Name: 0804844496372 pages | File size: 68.Mb

Kenneth Barrett : 25 Walks in Myanmar: Exploring the Historic Landmarks of Myanmar before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 25 Walks in Myanmar: Exploring the Historic Landmarks of Myanmar:

Explore the important heritage attractions and historical sites of Myanmar on foot! Myanmar, also called Burma, is one of Asia's least-known destinations a situation that is rapidly changing now as the country welcomes increasing numbers of foreign visitors. This is the first walking guide to present all the important heritage attractions and historical sites in the country. Author Kenneth Barrett not only takes you there, but explains in loving detail how each district and building evolved, who built what, and the special significance of the fascinating sites encountered along the way everything you'd want in a Myanmar travel guide. 25 Walks in Myanmar helps you discover this ancient land by guiding you on foot through the old neighborhoods and bringing them to life. The works of great Burmese kings, the grand trading houses and colonial offices built by the British, the temples and mosques erected by Indian and Chinese traders all are preserved in this time-locked land, and each tells a unique story. Written from a highly personal viewpoint, 25 Walks in Myanmar is your companion in a series of urban strolls that open up new worlds which would otherwise remain unknown. Now is the time to explore Myanmar and Kenneth Barrett is your knowledgeable guide to an unforgettable journey through Asia's most fascinating land.

About the Author Kenneth Barrett has been a journalist for his entire career. A Londoner by birth, he lives in Bangkok and has also lived in Singapore and Hong Kong. As a journalist he has covered a wide range of subjects in the business, industrial, travel and consumer sectors. He is also a photographer. He has been on assignment to over 60 countries, predominantly in Asia but also to parts of the Middle East and South America.