Here are 35 places, all within a one-day round trip from El Paso or Las Cruces. There are state parks with something besides cactus or trees--museums of a "World Class: status, or at least ten stars, and national monuments. These gifts from Mother Nature help you enjoy your stay in the area.For example-- The Historic lawmen's Museum in Las Cruces has items from Pat Garrett/Billy the Kid days to more recent times. -The Border Patrol Museum. -The War Birds Museum has 33 aircraft from a German Fleisher "Storch" and other World War II aircraft fame to recent additions including three MIGs. -The largest urban park in the United States is home to two of the local elephants. -Three Rivers State park has over 21,000 Pueblo Indian Petroglyphs. -The "Catwalk" of the Gila National Forest should be listed with the top ten marvels of the United States, and many, many more.

About the AuthorLehr and his wife travel the area in their "Wussmobile" seeking and investigating the unusual. When not adventuring, Bill publishes a monthly arts newsletter for Southern New Mexico.
