CT for almost 8 years now and this book gave me a lot of new ideas about fun things to do. If you're looking for some things to keep you busy around the year it's a great book.

Discover a wide variety of year-round weekend activities and itineraries in one of the smaller, yet diverse, states in the country. Full of year-round activities and fun excursions for both first-time visitors and long-time residents, 52 Weekends in Connecticut traverses the entire state, from the bucolic Northwest Corner to the Quiet Corner in the northeast, along the shoreline facing Long Island Sound and dozens of points in between. Tour an Ivy League campus; shop for antiques and hidden treasures; hike the Appalachian Trail; ride a vintage steam train; or take a wintertime cruise in search of seals, and much more! 50 black-and-white photographs and 5 maps
