distance, scenery). The directions are a little hard for me but I look them iPad in advance online. I also appreciate that the book states important side notes like entrance fees and restrooms!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Get outside in atlantaBy MelissaI bought this book looking to find places to walk and hike near and in Atlanta. This is book is full of hikes and parks I had no idea existed. If you are looking to find places to get outside in nature in Atlanta this is for you. It includes maps, difficulty level, and terrain.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great book for walking and hiking in the Atlanta area.By BookwormWonderful resource for walking and hiking in the Atlanta area. A bonus is the hikes and suggestions of places to go near the hikes that are featured!

One of the South's premier cities, Atlanta is home to an abundance of spectacular hiking and walking destinations. From urban hikes to suburban parks and rural wilderness, 60 Hikes within 60 Miles: Atlanta shows readers how to quickly drive to and enjoy the best area hikes. The Chattahoochee River National Recreation Area offers a wide range of outdoor activity, including several scenic hikes. Hikes from the Georgia mountains, Stone Mountain Park, Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park, Spirewell Bluff, and locations in between provide Atlantans a diverse combination of hikes in length and difficulty. In addition to scenic charm, many hikes have great historical appeal, such as Burnt Hickory Loop and Cheatham Hill Trail. Other trails, such as Grant Park Loop and the Atlanta Ramble, feature major Atlanta attractions. Complete with directions, maps, and a wealth of historical detail, the guide beckons hikers of all ages and fitness levels into the out of doors. With this newly revised and updated 3rd edition, hikers will have no trouble selecting the perfect hike for spending an hour or an afternoon out on the beautiful trails of Atlanta.

About the AuthorRandy and Pam Golden have shared their life-long love of hiking since they met at college in Florida. After marrying in 1977, they began hiking across the United States and into Canada. Among their favorite foreign destinations are Puerto Rico's El Yunque and Australia's Dandenong Mountains. They began writing about their adventures on their website, About North Georgia (ngeorgia.com). In 1998 the site's Trails section was spun off into a site of its own, Georgia Trails (georgiatrails.com). Their dogs Bessie and Sugar join them on hikes that permit pets.
