

[Ebook free] Aboman's Guide to Wilderness Schools and Primitive Events

Aboman's Guide to Wilderness Schools and Primitive Events

Joe Bigley

*audiobook / *ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC*

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#4093467 in Books Gibbs Smith 2000-04-01Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.00 x .38 x 6.00l, #File Name: 0879059524160 pages | File size: 44.Mb

Joe Bigley : Aboman's Guide to Wilderness Schools and Primitive Events before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Aboman's Guide to Wilderness Schools and Primitive Events:

11 of 12 people found the following review helpful. The only book of its kindBy Kevin LeeI just finished Abomans book and must say it was very informative. My wife and I plan on traveling and believe me, this will be the most important book we bring with us. He gives all the information you need from the wherabouts of the schools, the qualification of the teacher, the price of the school, and the expected techniques and skills obtained. I recommend this book to anyone interested in expanding their outdoor survival skills.

Earth Connection, Paleotechnics, Rabbitstick Rendezvous, Glass Buttes Knap-In. These are just a few of the schools and events where people from all walks of life awaken to the skills and lifeways of our primitive ancestors. This informative guide includes information about curricula, instructor's backgrounds, and philosophy of each regional school, as well as descriptions, dates, and costs of the primitive gatherings around the country. Attending one of these special events or schools gives one the feeling of the old tribal way of life and refreshes the spirit. Author J.A. Bigley, retired navy officer, offers the points of interest in each region, giving helpful comments about the schools and sharing his belief that "Aboman lives within each of us. He surfaces whenever someone stops to study a track, picks wildflowers, goes hiking in the rain, or tells stories around a night fire. Whether one's desire is to get back to nature on a full-time basis, or just enjoy a walk in the park, it is our own personal Aboman coming to the forefront, and leading us in that direction."

From the Back Cover Earth Connection, Paleotechnics, Rabbitstick Rendezvous, Glass Buttes Knap-In. These are just a few of the schools and events where people from all walks of life awaken to the skills and lifeways of our primitive ancestors. This informative guide includes information about curricula, instructor's backgrounds, and philosophy of each regional school, as well as descriptions, dates, and costs of the primitive gatherings around the country. Attending one of these special events or schools gives one the feeling of the old tribal way of life and refreshes the spirit. Author J.A. Bigley, retired navy officer, offers the points of interest in each region, giving helpful comments about the schools and sharing his belief that "Aboman lives within each of us. He surfaces whenever someone stops to study a track, picks wildflowers, goes hiking in the rain, or tells stories around a night fire. Whether one's desire is to get back to nature on a full-time basis, or just enjoy a walk in the park, it is our own personal Aboman coming to the forefront, and leading us in that direction." About the Author Joe Bigley, owner of Salmon Outdoor School, has more than twenty years experience with outdoor/survival skills. He lives in Idaho. Excerpt. Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved. Whether you seek to master ancient skills or simply want to become self-reliant, or even if you're interested in an occasional hunting, fishing, or camping trip, you can fill your dream with the offerings in this guide. In short, this book is intended to be a one-stop resource that lists the schools and instructors of primitive and outdoor skills across the country.