Richard Harding Davis : About Paris (Illustrated Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised About Paris (Illustrated Edition):

Davis (1864-1916) was an American journalist, war correspondent and writer of fiction whose influence extended to the world of fashion as he is credited with popularising the clean-shaven look with young men at the turn of the 20th century. This book of observations on fin-de siecle Paris was first published in 1895 and is illustrated throughout by

Charles Dana Gibson who is believed to have used Davis as the inspiration for his dashing "Gibson man," the male equivalent of his famous "Gibson girl."

About the Author Davis, an American author of romantic novels and short stories, was also the best known reporter of his generation.
