All of the topics covered within these pages are also good for new believers and those seeking to explore theology and understanding God better. I recommend going through this book with at least someone else to process ideas and questions. It tackles tough topics and breaks it down very well. Loved it and highly recommend it.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy A. ZelleEvery CMA ordination candidate should order and study this book. Dr. Alexander Zell0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Chicago GuyVery well done.

A resource to help accreditation and ordination candidates understand Alliance theology.

About the AuthorBEN ELLIOTT (PhD, University of Aberdeen, Systematic Theology) is the lead pastor at Deer Park Alliance Church in Red Deer, Alberta, Canada, where his focus is on preaching the hope filled message of the Gospel and communicating theology in plain language: in a way that intersects with the reality of day to day life. He previously served with the Christian and Missionary Alliance in Indonesia for several years, where he was involved in theological education, before returning to Canada in 2014. Ben, along with his wife and two kids, enjoy an active lifestyle and the outdoors; Ben especially enjoys cycling.
