they were spot on and with excellent details for paddlers. I have long been a follower of Tim's "Miles Paddled" website so when I heard of this book I knew it was worth ordering. Received yesterday, started reading the descriptions of rivers I'm familiar with and found they were spot on and with excellent details for paddlers interested in this area of Wisconsin. I believe this book will become a standard reference for paddlers in the area, much like Svob's Paddling Wisconsin series is, only covering many rivers not in Svob's. Looking forward to researching (then paddling) the many new unfamiliar places described in this book. Nice job, Tim.

By Customer This book is awesome! Not only is it wonderfully informative but it is VERY well written. Well worth the purchase if you plan to do some paddling in the covered region. As a resident of Milwaukee this is my new "bible" for kayaking adventures. Since buying a copy in August, I've managed to take three recommended trips and am SO grateful for guidance!!

By Customer Mr. Bauer's book is fantastic from cover to cover! This book is so well-researched and is loaded with an inspiring appreciation for the natural beauty of Wisconsin. Everything I need to plan a paddle is right here at my fingertips. I can't wait to get to some of these spots in my own kayak.

South-central Wisconsin provides an impressive array of opportunities for all types of paddling, including some of the very best day trips in the entire state and even Upper Midwest. Paddling South Central Wisconsin, by experienced paddler and author Timothy Bauer, guides all types of paddlers, whether veteran or novice, through whitewater adrenaline or flatwater calm routes near Madison, Rockford, Janesville, Waukesha, and Milwaukee. This paddling guide is the perfect companion for those seeking "the rowed less taken." It describes the best times to paddle 60 diverse routes, alerts readers to each paddle's difficulty level and estimated length, and suggests side trips, optional trip extensions, and alternate routes to paddle, depending on weather conditions. Easy-to-follow maps, complete with GPS coordinates and driving directions, add to this book's high value. In addition, the author provides contact information on local paddling clubs, outfitters, and Internet links.

About the Author A self-confessed kayak junkie, Timothy Bauer came to paddling only in his early 30s. He resides in Madison, WI, around which he has been paddled several thousand miles on area creeks, lakes, and rivers."
