We still can be proud of our artisans and crafters.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Fun, well organized and needed in CT!By Lori W.A greatly needed book for small businesses and artisans as well as the customers who seek out small, local people to support. Full disclosure: we are thrilled to be included in the book!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Delightful, Chatty, InformativeBy patricia rinehartI'm delighted to have this helpful little book in my car for those unexpected opportunities to explore something new and interesting to me in various parts of the state. I've already discovered and visited enjoyable local places such as Mystic Knotwork, the glass studio of Jeffrey P'An and Stonington's Chese Boro Whey thanks to this info-rich guide book in which Ms. Parzych comes across as a knowledgeable friend chatting about her pleasant visits to a wide range of CT artists, crafters and growers.

A unique guidebook and local resource full of hundreds of things to find and buy, crafts to discover, factories to explore, and history to uncover all made in Connecticut. Hundreds of the state's top cottage industries all places that you can shop and/or tour are showcased. Organized by product type, categories include ceramics/pottery, clothing/accessories, furnishings/furniture, glassware, home decor, jewelry, specialty foods, toys/games, and so much more. Together, these homegrown establishments help make up the identity of the Nutmeg State and are part of the larger fabric of what is distinctively New England.

About the Author Born and educated in Connecticut, Cynthia Parzych is a writer, book publisher, editor, and professional chef. She lives in Glastonbury, Connecticut, in The Old Parsonage, built in 1693, where she runs her publishing company and a food business using the produce grown on her property and sourced locally to make sauces, soups, pesto, pickles, vinegars, jams, and marmalades all sold from her house and farm stand under The Old Parsonage label.
