Archie Satterfield : Country Roads of Missouri before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Country Roads of Missouri:

A guide to the back road charms of the state where young Mark Twain slipped out windows to go fishing with boyhood friend Huck Finn.

About the AuthorArchie Satterfield, a native of Missouri, has written nearly 40 books on history and travel. A former newspaper and magazine editor and writer, he has been a freelance writer for many years. He now lives and works in France.
