Great PhotosBy SSWe have enjoyed having this collection of beautiful photographs of Minnesota to look through. It's a nice coffee table book. Well done!

A four-season collection of color photography from all around the North Star State. The stars of the North Star State shine brightly through the brilliant color photography of Greg Ryan and Sally Beyer as they turn expert eyes on their Minnesotathe Red River Valley, Voyageur Country, North Country, the North Shore of Lake Superior, the Mississippi headwaters, the grand lakes, the Twin Cities, prairie land, the Mississippi River Valley/Bluff Country, and all points in between. Come in and celebrate the diversity and splendor of Minnesota through each magical season of the year.

About the Author Greg Ryan was born and raised in Minnesota. An extended trek in Nepal taking photographs of the landscape and the people convinced Greg it was time to change careers, and he started photography business with Sally Beyer. Their business offers assignment and stock photography, with an emphasis on landscape and travel. This is Greg and Sally's fourth book. Sally Beyer was born and raised in Wisconsin, but she fell in love with Minnesota soon after finishing her education. Although Sally now spends much of her time tending to administrative and marketing tasks, she still manages to join Greg on a number of photo shoots. Sally lives with her husband near the eastern border of Minnesota.
