Must be the author himself.By fireloAs reviewer Joe Pickett said, this book is well-written and enjoyable. My personal preference is for single state travel books, because they are more exhaustive in their coverage, and thus more useful when traveling. The reason for this review is my amusement at finding an earlier review of this book from 2000 written by Joe Pickett. Joe Pickett is the name of the fictional hero of author C.J. Box's excellent mystery series set in Wyoming, and these books started appearing in 2001, after this review, with the award winning Open Season. I love these books, a perfect blend of mystery and western. So what say you, Mr. Box? Did you write the 2000 review for this book? I also can't help but wonder if C.J. Box is your real name. Perhaps you are a relative of Edgar Box, Gore Vidal's famous pseudonym.

Author C.J. Box helps visitors plan a trip tailored to their interests. Destinations include Bozeman/Livingston, Flathead Valley, Missoula, Billings, Helena, Great Falls, Glacier National Park, Jackson Hole, Cody, Ketchum/Sun Valley, Coeur D'Alene, and Boise. 15 photos. 42 maps. Chart .
