photography by James Randklev : Monterey Peninsula Impressions (Impressions (Farcountry Press)) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Monterey Peninsula Impressions (Impressions (Farcountry Press)):

1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. this has some good picturesBy breannathis is an okay book but has a lot of boring pictures but on the other hand the good pictures are excellent

One of the Sierra Club's most widely published photographers, James Randklev captures a vivid and varied portrait of the Monterey Peninsula, from the old-world charm of Carmel to the rocky beaches of the Big Sur coastline, from expansive Monterey Bay Aquarium to historic Cannery Row. Randklev uses a large-format camera to capture images of Point Lobos State Reserve, Pebble Beach, and Big Sur so powerful you can almost hear the waves pound the shores.

About the AuthorJames Randklev's brilliant and sensitive work has made him one of the Sierra Club's most published photographers. His images have appeared in books, periodicals, calendars, and advertising; and they have been exhibited in shows in the United States, including the International Exhibition of Nature Photography in Evian, France. In 2003 his work was selected for a book titled Worlds Top Landscape Photographers.
