Local Arizonan Kathleen Bryant shares the many ways to experience the wonders of the Grand Canyon, from river rafting in the inner canyon to "walking on air" on the Grand Canyon Skywalk. Bryant includes a range of diverting trip strategies, including A Wild Week in the Grand Outdoors and A Romantic Weekend for Two. Including expert advice on camping along the remote North Rim and visiting the Hualapai and Havasupai Reservations, Moon Grand Canyon gives travelers the tools they need to create a more personal and memorable experience.

About the Author Kathleen Bryant was only six months old when her parents bundled her up for her first road trip West, and she's been traveling ever since. Among her earliest memories is watching Emery and Ellsworth Kolb's movie about their 1911 river-running expedition at Grand Canyon's Kolb Studio. Since then, Kathleen has returned to Grand Canyon again and again to hike its trails, raft the Colorado, and explore dusty backroads and seldom-seen overlooks. An avid hiker and history buff, Kathleen has volunteered for the forest service, monitoring and stabilizing archaeological sites and leading visitors on tours of ruins and rock art in the Sedona area. A resident of Arizona for more than twenty years, she appreciates the way Grand Canyon holds all the Southwest's landscapes: slickrock, forests, mountains, and desert. Kathleen has written eleven books, including Kokopelli's Gift, an award-winning children's story, and the scenic guides Sedona: Treasure of the Southwest and Four Corners: Timeless Lands of the Southwest. In Western National Parks' Lodges Cookbook, she combines her love of travel with history and recipes from historic park lodges. Kathleen has also written for American Archaeology, American Artist, Arizona Highways, Sunset, and other magazines.
