Jeff Burlingame : Moon Olympic Peninsula (Moon Handbooks) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Moon Olympic Peninsula (Moon Handbooks):

There is so much to see and explore in the area that it can be overwhelming. This book has some great suggestions for how to plan your activities, and includes kid-friendly activity highlights. It has enough info to serve as a main guide book. The only shortcoming we experienced with the book was a lack of info regarding dog/pet-friendly options. But overall we were very pleased with it!6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. FantasticBy beckyWhile living in the Pacific Northwest we wanted a good guide book to plan our trip to the Olympic peninsula. We chose this book due to the great reviews. There is a sample trip planned for those with kids, this was a hit with our five kids. We found a lot of good tips and great places to visit. Usually we just use good old google to help us plan our trips, but having this book was a great asset. I would recommend this book to anyone planning on visiting the olympic peninsula. 5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Saved our trip. By LSWI bought a couple of books for our western WA trip. This was my favorite. Saved us when Olympic NP closed due to a freak storm -- provided good info on all the other things to do on the penninsula.

Author and Washington native Jeff Burlingame knows the best ways to enjoy the Olympic Peninsula, from strolling through the subalpine meadows and temperate rain forests of Olympic National Park to soaking and swimming at Sol Duc Hot Springs. Burlingame offers unique strategies so travelers can organize their trips around specific time restrictions and interests, such as A Long Weekend, Seven Days of Highlights, and for Stephenie Meyer fans Three Days of Twilight. With details on touring small towns, exploring the coast, and getting lost in nature, Moon Olympic Peninsula gives travelers the tools they need to create a more personal and memorable experience.

About the Author Jeff Burlingame is the author of 30 nonfiction books. He has won several high-profile awards for his work, including a prestigious NAACP Image Award and a national Sigma Delta Chi Award from the Society of Professional Journalists. Prior to becoming a full-time author, Jeff spent a decade working as a reporter and editor for his hometown newspaper in the blue-collar Olympic Peninsula town of Aberdeen, where he won nearly a dozen awards for his writing and cofounded the nonprofit Kurt Cobain Memorial Foundation. Jeff lives in Tacoma, Washington, and is currently working on his first novel.
