Excellent resource bookBy Lost AgainSpot on with trail descriptions and very well written. Best guide to mountain biking I've ever used. I hope they do more areas outside of SoCal.

Describes 34 trips by mountain bicycle in the Angeles National Forest, just above Los Angeles. The book touches on each route's history, and gives total distance, elevation gain and approximate time required to complete it. An accurate topographic map accompanies each route. The rides range from very easy 2-mile trips to all-day 35-mile challenges.
